Mr.R.R.Salvi i/b Mrs.Suvarna Telgote for petitioner.
Mr.Ritesh Wagh for respondent

CORAM: S.C.DHARMADHIKARI J.
27th NOVEMBER, 2007

P.C.

1. Both sides do not dispute that during the pendency of this petition some amount has been paid. My attention is invited to the order passed by this Court in that behalf on 5th September, 2007. If the case of the petitioner husband is that earlier the order granting maintenance order is in the sum of Rs.2000/- which sum is now enhanced without there being any change in circumstances, then, it would be appropriate for the petitioner/husband to move the Family Court seeking modification of its interim order, which is impugned in the present petition. Needless to state that if such application is made, which also points out the subsequent developments, then, the Family Court to apply its mind afresh to the request of the petitioner/husband and pass appropriate orders after hearing both sides in accordance with law. If no application for modification is made, the impugned order stands and then the petitioner/husband will have to abide by it or face all consequences in law. Petition is dismissed.
